Hello! In our opinion, the song "Dance between heaven and earth" is a song that oscillates between different sounds, such as jazz, world music and the tones of classical music, creating a unique and engaging atmosphere. It transmits a subtle, almost transcendental energy, that makes us reflect on our human condition and the search for something beyond, something divine. The music has an introspective, unhurried quality that delves into the duality that defines and runs through us all. It is not just a composition, but an invitation to connect to that fine line between the earthly and the heavenly.

Your music will be broadcast on our radio, from Brazil to the whole world via the Internet.

Stay in the flow!

After its release, we will include your song in our radio show "Noitinha Cool" here on Rádio Armazém (listen on radioarmazem.net). The radio show airs every Sunday at 22:00 (Brazil time). This radio show will then be added to our playlist on our Spotify profile and your music will continue to be played on the radio program. We will share it on our social networks and tag you on our Instagram, for our followers!

Your song Danse entre ciel et terre is to me a beautiful instrumental piece that feels like a journey between two worlds. The music moves with a sense of wonder, as if you are floating between earth and sky, stuck between the real and the divine. It's the kind of song that makes you stop, close your eyes and just feel.

The arrangement is rich but delicate, blending flowing melodies with a quiet intensity. There is a tension between light and dark, between tension and release, which makes the song captivating from beginning to end. It almost feels like a conversation, as if the music itself is trying to figure something out, as we do in life.

Listening to this song reminded me of times when I just needed to breathe, to get away from the noise of everyday life. Whether it's a long walk or just sitting in the quiet, this song creates the perfect soundtrack for reflection.

Kind regards

Ron

A beautiful arrangement, with a piano that stands out for the sensitivity of the musician. A meticulous and quality work, which serves as a soundtrack for many types of occasions. The good guitar solo is a strong point. We will include the piece in our radio programming.

Hello! First of all, thank you for submitting your song to our curation.

Great song! It has an upbeat vibe. The drums are well programmed and the keyboard and bass effects are very good. The percussions create special moments, just like the guitars complete the sound. The whole thing reminds of a very interesting psychedelic/progressive rock. And there are several instruments in different layers, which combine very well.

The technical part is sensational, with an incredible mix and perfect mastering.

I liked the song, but for now I'll just leave my opinion, ok?

Congratulations on the release. Good luck and success. We'll keep you updated.
